SURVIVAL: 'CAPTURE THE FLAG' (TEAM GAME RULES)

1. Both teams assemble at their assigned flag stations for the start of each game. Players cannot leave their stations until the signal to start is given. Listen for the signal that starts and ends each game.
2. The object of each game is to infiltrate the opposing team's territory, capture their flag and return it safely to your own flag station before they do the same to you.
3. A player carrying a captured flag must show it visibly.
4. A team may recapture its flag by 'splatted' the player carrying it. The flag must then be returned to the station from which it was captured.
5. A player is eliminated by being 'splatted' by an opponent on any part of the anatomy. A 'splatted' player must then leave the field (armband raised above the head) and return to the neutral zone and await the start of the next game.
6. NEVER shoot anyone holding an armband above his head.
7. A player may only leave the field during a game to retire.
8. Shields are not permitted.
9. In the event of a dispute, the Marshalls decision is final.
10. DO NOT SHOOT THE MARSHALLS! Doing so will lead to instant disqualification.
